– Pitchforkmedia.com

DESCRIPTION

Don't Need You is a documentary film that tells the story of the origins of the Riot Grrrl movement in the American independent music scene of the 1990's, and how this feminist movement evolved into a revolutionary underground network of education and self-awareness network through music, writing, activism, and women-friendly community. The film gives audiences a chance to meet key figures in the development of Riot Grrrl and see for themselves how these women have changed the history of music and feminism forever. The film features one-on-one interviews interspersed with rare, archival materials, including original Riot Grrrl fanzines, flyers, and photographs, as well as seldom seen footage from pioneering Riot Grrrl bands like Bikini Kill, Heavens to Betsy, and Bratmobile, as well as compelling interview footage with Ian MacKaye and clips of Fugazi in concert.

SELLING POINTS:

- This film has appeared at selected festivals and screenings including AFI Music Doc Series, New York Underground Film Festival, Women's Day Japan, Art-O-Matic Fest, Ladyfests Worldwide.
- The DVD is packaged in a sharp full color case, with top spine barcode and features a Photos/Zines/Flyers slideshow.
- Interview excerpts on the DVD feature cultural icons like: Kathleen Hanna (Bikini Kill/Le Tigre), Allison Wolfe (Bratmobile/ Partyline), Corin Tucker (Sleater-Kinney/ Heavens to Betsy), Madigan Shive (Bonfire Madigan/ Tattle Tale) and Ian MacKaye (Fugazi/Evens). Among the bonus footage included with the DVD is a compelling 18 minute interview with Mackaye, who speaks about his involvement with Bikini Kill and other riot grrrl artists through his label Dischord Records.
